Engineering

a SunSource Company

Through our inspired creativity and customized solutions, Price Engineering challenges the standard in order to innovate for the future....we make motion work.

Price Engineering, a SunSource company, is a diverse provider of hydraulic, pneumatic, electrical control and automation solutions. We continue to broaden our capabilities and answer customer needs with the products we distribute, the systems we design and build, and the services we provide.

We make motion work.

Engineering design and MRO services are provided throughout North America and globally. Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and Northern Illinois are authorized distribution areas.
